

ACTION 5D

Dinner Theater & More...

Cadiz once had a movie theater on Main Street in the building (below) that people often associate with Red Cross and blood drives. Conceptual ideas for how this building, or another one in downtown Cadiz, might be converted into a unique movie theater and/or dinner theater experience are provided on the following page.

The old Kentucky Theater (above) and how the building looks today (right & below).

